New NASA Launch Manifest Now Available on the Internet

NASA has released the June 1997 edition of the Mixed Fleet, Payload Flight Assignments. The manifest is available on the web at "<http://www.osf.hq.nasa.gov/manifest/>". It summarizes Space Shuttle and Expendable Launch Vehicle missions planned through calendar year 2003. Space Shuttle missions for calendar years 2002-2003 are under review pending the resolution of details in the assembly sequence of the International Space Station.
